About The International Cinderella Scholarship Program

The International Cinderella Scholarship Program, founded in 1976, has grown into the largest and most prestigious scholarship oriented pageant system of its kind in the world. Throughout its 40+ year history Cinderella has championed the need and value of higher education for women and has promoted that goal by awarding millions of dollars in cash college scholarships to young women from the United States and a host of foreign countries. Cinderella is based on a 3 tiered system of competitions. Participants start out on the Local level and based on their performance can advance to the State level of competition (or national level for foreign countries) and then proceed to the final level of competition, the International Pageant.

Age Divisions:

- Cinderella Infant - (0-11 months)*
- Cinderella Baby - (12-23 months)*
- Cinderella Tiny Tot - (24-35 months)*
- Cinderella Tot - (3-6 years)*
- Cinderella Mini Miss - (7-9 years)*

judges as she reaches POSITION 4 and “hold” in this position until the end of the “harp sweep” when she will hear the sound of the ELECTRONIC TONE which signals the completion of her modeling presentation and her EXIT from the stage.

The final “harp sweep” of the previous modeling routine will signal the next participant to move into “start position” (POSITION 1) and to “hold” in this position until the sound of the ELECTRONIC TONE. Immediately following the ELECTRONIC TONE the rhythm (beat of the music) will resume with a new musical selection and the next participant will begin her modeling presentation.

NOTE: There are two (2) important ways for the participant to know when to resume walking after a “rhythm void”: 1) The CHIMES signal the participant to move to the next position and 2) the resuming of the rhythm beat of the music signals the participant to move to the next position. Even if the participant does not hear the CHIME, she should resume walking when the rhythm (beat of the music) begins again.

COLLECTIVE JUDGING MUSIC

On each side of the tape at the end of the individual modeling music there is a musical “collective judging” segment which gives the judges the opportunity to see all of the participants on a comparative basis. This is the time that the judges actually mark their ballots and cast their votes.

The timed collective judging music begins with a musical entrance for the participants (or top five finalists) to “Thank Heaven for Little Girls” with the participants filing single file onto the stage (approximately 2 feet apart). As the “harp sweep” begins the master-of-ceremonies will ask the participants to place their heels together and face the audience.

CASUALWEAR INTRODUCTIONS

Participants in all age groups introduce themselves during their casualwear presentations. Procedure will be as follows: The master-of-ceremonies meets the participant at POSITION 2 (center stage) with the microphone (there will be no “stand mike” so the emcee holds the microphone for the participant). During the rhythm void (quiet part of music) the participant gives her name, age and hometown. She then makes a complete turn. As she completes the turn the SOUND OF THE CHIME will indicate that she may proceed down the runway to complete her modeling presentation.

This phase of competition gives the judges a better insight into poise, self-confidence and stage presence. Participants should rehearse with a microphone developing voice projection, diction, and expression.

Wondering what to wear to a Cinderella pageant?

"Real kids, in real clothes"

We want your child's natural beauty and personality to shine through. Clothing shouldn't be overly ornate or glitzy. We focus on the young lady, rather than the clothing she wears. Clothes should be modern, age appropriate, modest and should be tailored to fit like a glove. Every girl is different, shop for something that fits the contestants body type.
